AFFIDAVIT OF ATTORNEY'S FEES,

DECLARATION

CASE NO.: 19-cv-2034-LDH-SMG

The present Affidavit of Attorney's Fees, Costs and Expenses and Declaration is submitted pursuant to the Court's Report and Recommendation [Document 17].

The Plaintiff demands that the Defendant, H & 6 ASSOCIATE INC., compensates him for his attorney's fees for 52.7 hours of time at the rate of $544 per hour, for the secretarial services for 11 hours of time at $75 per hour and for costs and expenses in the amount of $894.02, for the total amount of $30,387.82. These fees, costs and expenses are itemized on the invoice [Exhibit 1].

The Plaintiff demands that the Defendant compensates his attorney at the rate of $544 per hour. This amount is based on the United States Attorney Office's Attorney's Fees Matrix [Exhibit 2], which has been adapted by the courts. The undersigned counsel has substantial experience. He was admitted to practice in 2003 and practiced law for over 16 years.

The Plaintiff's attorney kept records of his expenses [Exhibit 3] and sent numerous letters, including many letters to the Defendant, in which he informed its chief executive officer of the status of the litigation and invited him or her to enter into settlement negotiations in order to avoid prolonged litigation and spending money on attorney's fees and expenses [Exhibit 4]. The Defendant has failed to respond to the correspondence of the undersigned counsel.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

February 11, 2020

Respectfully submitted,

Michael Grinblat, Esq. (4159752)

Explanatory Notes

1. This matrix of hourly rates for attorneys of varying experience levels and paralegals/law clerks has been prepared by the Civil Division of the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia (USAO) to evaluate requests for attorney's fees in civil cases in District of Columbia courts. The matrix is intended for use in cases in which a fee-shifting statute permits the prevailing party to recover "reasonable" attorney's fees. See, e.g., 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(k) (Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act); 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(E) (Freedom of Information Act); 28 U.S.C. § 2412(b) (Equal Access to Justice Act). The matrix has not been adopted by the Department of Justice generally for use outside the District of Columbia, or by other Department of Justice components, or in other kinds of cases. The matrix does not apply to cases in which the hourly rate is limited by statute. See 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d).
2. A "reasonable fee" is a fee that is sufficient to attract an adequate supply of capable counsel for meritorious cases. See, e.g., Perdue v. Kenny A. ex rel. Winn, 559 U.S. 542, 552 (2010). Consistent with that definition, the hourly rates in the above matrix were calculated from average hourly rates reported in 2011 survey data for the D.C. metropolitan area, which rates were adjusted for inflation with the Producer Price Index-Office of Lawyers (PPI-OL) index. The survey data comes from ALM Legal Intelligence's 2010 & 2011 Survey of Law Firm Economics. The PPI-OL index is available at <http://www.bls.gov/ppi>. On that page, under "PPI Databases," and "Industry Data (Producer Price Index - PPI)," select either "one screen" or "multi-screen" and in the resulting window use "industry code" 541110 for "Offices of Lawyers" and "product code" 541110541110 for "Offices of Lawyers." The average hourly rates from the 2011 survey data are multiplied by the PPI-OL index for May in the year of the update, divided by 176.6, which is the PPI-OL index for January 2011, the month of the survey data, and then rounding to the nearest whole dollar (up if remainder is 50¢ or more).
3. The PPI-OL index has been adopted as the inflator for hourly rates because it better reflects the mix of legal services that law firms collectively offer, as opposed to the legal services that typical consumers use, which is what the CPI-

Legal Services index measures. Although it is a national index, and not a local one, cf. Eley v. District of Columbia, 793 F.3d 97, 102 (D.C. Cir. 2015) (noting criticism of national inflation index), the PPI-OL index has historically been generous relative to other possibly applicable inflation indexes, and so its use should minimize disputes about whether the inflator is sufficient.

4. The methodology used to compute the rates in this matrix replaces that used prior to 2015, which started with the matrix of hourly rates developed in Laffey v. Northwest Airlines, Inc. 572 F. Supp. 354 (D.D.C. 1983), aff'd in part, rev'd in part on other grounds, 746 F.2d 4 (D.C. Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 472 U.S. 1021 (1985), and then adjusted those rates based on the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (CPI-U) for the Washington-Baltimore (DC-MD-VA-WV) area. Because the USAO rates for the years 2014-15 and earlier have been generally accepted as reasonable by courts in the District of Columbia, see note 9 below, the USAO rates for those years will remain the same as previously published on the USAO's public website. That is, the USAO rates for years prior to and including 2014-15 remain based on the prior methodology, i.e., the original Laffey Matrix updated by the CPI-U for the Washington-Baltimore area. See Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Washington v. Dep't of Justice, 142 F. Supp. 3d 1 (D.D.C. 2015) and Declaration of Dr. Laura A. Malowane filed therein on Sept. 22, 2015 (Civ. Action No. 12-1491, ECF No. 46-1) (confirming that the USAO rates for 2014-15 computed using prior methodology are reasonable).
5. Although the USAO will not issue recalculated Laffey Matrices for past years using the new methodology, it will not oppose the use of that methodology (if properly applied) to calculate reasonable attorney's fees under applicable fee-shifting statutes for periods prior to June 2015, provided that methodology is used consistently to calculate the entire fee amount. Similarly, although the USAO will no longer issue an updated Laffey Matrix computed using the prior methodology, it will not oppose the use of the prior methodology (if properly applied) to calculate reasonable attorney's fees under applicable fee-shifting statutes for periods after May 2015, provided that methodology is used consistently to calculate the entire fee amount.
6. The various "brackets" in the column headed "Experience" refer to the attorney's years of experience practicing law. Normally, an attorney's experience will be calculated starting from the attorney's graduation from law school. Thus, the "Less than 2 years" bracket is generally applicable to attorneys in their first and second years after graduation from law school, and the "2-3 years" bracket generally becomes applicable on the second anniversary of the attorney's graduation (i.e., at the beginning of the third year following law school). See Laffey, 572 F. Supp. at 371. An adjustment may be necessary, however, if the attorney's admission to the bar was significantly delayed or the attorney did not otherwise follow a typical career progression. See, e.g., EPIC v. Dep't of Homeland Sec., 999 F. Supp. 2d 61, 70-71 (D.D.C. 2013) (attorney not admitted to bar compensated at "Paralegals & Law Clerks" rate); EPIC v. Dep't of Homeland Sec., 982 F. Supp. 2d 56, 60-61 (D.D.C. 2013) (same). The various experience levels were selected by relying on the levels in the ALM Legal Intelligence 2011 survey data. Although finer gradations in experience level might yield different estimates of market rates, it is important to have statistically sufficient sample sizes for each experience level. The experience categories in the current USAO Matrix are based on statistically significant sample sizes for each experience level.
7. ALM Legal Intelligence's 2011 survey data does not include rates for paralegals and law clerks. Unless and until reliable survey data about actual paralegal/law clerk rates in the D.C. metropolitan area become available, the USAO will compute the hourly rate for Paralegals & Law Clerks using the most recent historical rate from the USAO's former Laffey Matrix (i.e., $150 for 2014-15) updated with the PPI-OL index. The formula is $150 multiplied by the PPI-OL index for May in the year of the update, divided by 194.3 (the PPI-OL index for May 2014), and then rounding to the nearest whole dollar (up if remainder is 50¢ or more).
8. The USAO anticipates periodically revising the above matrix if more recent reliable survey data becomes available, especially data specific to the D.C. market, and in the interim years updating the most recent survey data with the PPI-OL index, or a comparable index for the District of Columbia if such a locality-specific index becomes available.
9. Use of an updated Laffey Matrix was implicitly endorsed by the Court of Appeals in Save Our Cumberland Mountains v. Hodel, 857 F.2d 1516, 1525 (D.C. Cir. 1988) (en banc). The Court of Appeals subsequently stated that parties may rely on the updated Laffey Matrix prepared by the USAO as evidence of prevailing market rates for litigation counsel in the Washington, D.C. area. See Covington v. District of Columbia, 57 F.3d 1101, 1105 & n.14, 1109 (D.C. Cir. 1995), cert. denied, 516 U.S. 1115 (1996). Most lower federal courts in the District of Columbia have relied on the USAO's Laffey Matrix, rather than the so-called "Salazar Matrix" (also known as the "LSI Matrix" or the "Enhanced Laffey Matrix"), as the "benchmark for reasonable fees" in this jurisdiction. Miller v. Holzmann, 575 F. Supp. 2d 2, 18 n.29 (D.D.C. 2008) (quoting Pleasants v. Ridge, 424 F. Supp. 2d 67, 71 n.2 (D.D.C. 2006)); see, e.g., Joaquin v. Friendship Pub. Charter Sch., 188 F. Supp. 3d 1 (D.D.C. 2016); Prunty v. Vivendi, 195 F. Supp. 3d 107 (D.D.C. 2016); CREW v. U.S. Dep't of Justice, 142 F. Supp. 3d 1 (D.D.C. 2015); McAllister v. District of Columbia, 21 F. Supp. 3d 94 (D.D.C. 2014); Embassy of Fed. Republic of Nigeria v. Ugwuonye, 297 F.R.D. 4, 15 (D.D.C. 2013); Berke v. Bureau of Prisons, 942 F. Supp. 2d 71, 77 (D.D.C. 2013); Fisher v. Friendship Pub. Charter Sch., 880 F. Supp. 2d 149, 154-55 (D.D.C. 2012); Sykes v. District of Columbia, 870 F. Supp. 2d 86, 93-96 (D.D.C. 2012); Heller v. District of Columbia, 832 F. Supp. 2d 32, 40-49 (D.D.C. 2011); Hayes v. D.C. Public Schools, 815 F. Supp. 2d 134, 142-43 (D.D.C. 2011); Queen Anne's Conservation Ass'n v. Dep't of State, 800 F. Supp. 2d 195, 200-01 (D.D.C. 2011); Woodland v. Viacom, Inc., 255 F.R.D. 278, 279-80 (D.D.C. 2008); American Lands Alliance v. Norton, 525 F. Supp. 2d 135, 148-50 (D.D.C. 2007). But see, e.g., Salazar v. District of Columbia, 123 F. Supp. 2d 8, 13-15 (D.D.C. 2000). Since initial publication of the instant USAO Matrix in 2015, numerous courts similarly have employed the USAO Matrix rather than the Salazar Matrix for fees incurred since 2015. E.g., Electronic Privacy Information Center v. United States Drug Enforcement Agency, 266 F. Supp. 3d 162, 171 (D.D.C. 2017) ("After examining the case law and the supporting evidence offered by both parties, the Court is persuaded that the updated USAO matrix, which covers billing rates from 2015 to 2017, is the most suitable choice here.") (requiring recalculation of fees that applicant had computed according to Salazar Matrix); Clemente v. FBI, No. 08-1252 (BJR) (D.D.C. Mar. 24, 2017), 2017 WL 3669617, at *5 (applying USAO Matrix, as it is "based on much more current data than the Salazar Matrix"); Gatore v. United States Dep't of Homeland Security, 286 F. Supp. 3d 25, 37 (D.D.C. 2017) (although plaintiff had submitted a "'great deal of evidence regarding [the] prevailing market rates for complex federal litigation' to demonstrate that its requested [Salazar] rates are entitled to a presumption of reasonableness, . . . the Court nonetheless concludes that the defendant has rebutted that presumption and shown that the current USAO Matrix is the more accurate matrix for estimating the prevailing rates for complex federal litigation in this District"); DL v. District of Columbia, 267 F. Supp. 3d 55, 70 (D.D.C. 2017) ("the USAO Matrix ha[s] more indicia of reliability and more accurately represents prevailing market rates" than the Salazar Matrix). The USAO contends that the Salazar Matrix is fundamentally flawed, does not use the Salazar Matrix to determine whether fee awards under fee-shifting statutes are reasonable, and will not consent to pay hourly rates calculated with the methodology on which that matrix is based. The United States recently submitted an appellate brief that further explains the reliability of the USAO Matrix vis-à-vis the Salazar matrix. See Br. for the United States as Amicus Curiae Supporting Appellees, DL v. District of Columbia, No. 18-7004 (D.C. Cir. filed July 20, 2018).

Damaged, Lost or Late Claims

In the event that your package is damaged, lost or late, please contact the Staples® Ship Center Claims Department at 1-800-797-5924.

Hours of operation: Monday-Friday: 9 A.M.- 8 P.M. EST.

All late claims must be called into the Staples Ship Center Claims Department within 15 days of the expected delivery date as per UPS policy. Keep ALL packaging materials and this invoice, as well as proof of value for damaged or lost packages. Claims take 2 to 6 weeks for review and payment (if approved).

By signing the merchant receipt, I understand/agree that:

1. I am subject to all Staples and UPS Terms and Conditions. See www.ups.com for further details.
2. Staples reserves the right to open and inspect any package to be shipped.
3. Staples will not be liable for damage to packages improperly packed, unless my receipt shows that I paid for Staples to pack the package.
4. Staples will not ship any hazardous materials or other restricted items and you affirm that any package you have packed and offered to Staples for shipment does not contain such contents.
5. Parcel Insurance.
 - a. I may elect to pay an additional, optional fee (as specified on this receipt) for Staples' parcel insurance which is offered as part of Staples' UPS Ship Center services. Such fees do not include any markup by, or commission payment to, Staples. This insurance does not provide any insurance to you - you are neither an insured nor an additional insured under Staples' parcel insurance.
 - b. Any claims for disputes related to parcel insurance must be pursued in arbitration not in any court proceeding, and must be pursued on an individual basis only, not in any form of class or representative action. Complete terms and conditions regarding individual binding arbitration are available at www.ups.com.
 - c. Staples' liability on any claim for loss or damage of a package with parcel insurance shall not exceed the lesser of (a) the insured value, (b) repair cost, (c) actual cost, (d) replacement cost, or (e) invoice price (where the shipped property has been sold). In all other cases, Staples' liability shall not exceed UPS's maximum liability for loss or damage under its Tariff/Terms and Conditions of Service available for review on www.ups.com.
6. International packages may be subject to duties, taxes and brokerage fees as determined by the destination country, to be paid by the receiving party. These duties and taxes cannot be prepaid or estimated by Staples.

By signing the merchant receipt, you acknowledge that Staples will NOT ship any hazardous materials or other restricted items, and you affirm that any package you have packed and offered to Staples for shipment does not contain such contents.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Summons and complaint were duly served upon your corporation through the New York State Secretary of State on May 8, 2019. Under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 12(a), you were required to plead, or otherwise respond, to the complaint, by May 29, 2019. Because the service was performed, in part, by mail, you were entitled to three additional days to answer, or respond. Your time to respond was further extended, because the date, on which you were required to plead, or respond, fell on a weekend. Consequently, you were required to answer, or otherwise respond, by June 3, 2019. You failed to do that. You also did not contact me. Because of that, today I filed an application for a certificate of default with the Clerk for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. Enclosed please find a courtesy copy of the application with exhibits, which include summons, complaint and affidavit of service. I expect the clerk to certify default in the next few days. Once default is certified, I will move for a default judgment.

Case No.: 19-cv-2034-LDH-SMG

Attention: Chief Executive Officer of H & 6 Associate Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be advised that my law firm filed the above-entitled legal action on behalf of my client, Semyon Grinblat, in the federal court for the Eastern District of New York on April 9, 2019. The lawsuit stems from the discrimination of my client by the defendants on the basis of disability in violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. §12182, §12183 and §12188(a), NYS Civil Rights Law §40-c and §40-d, NYS Human Rights Law §296 and New York City Human Rights Laws [Administrative Code] §8-107.

Summons and complaint were duly served upon your corporation through the New York State Secretary of State on May 8, 2019. Under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 12(a), you were required to plead, or otherwise respond, to the complaint, by May 29, 2019. Because the service was performed, in part, by mail, you were entitled to three additional days to answer, or respond. Your time to respond was further extended, because the date, on which you were required to plead, or respond, fell on a weekend. Consequently, you were required to answer, or otherwise respond, by June 3, 2019. You failed to do that. You also did not contact me. Because of that, I filed an application for a certificate of default with the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. The Clerk of the Court issued the certificate of default and I subsequently filed a motion for default judgment on July 6, 2019. Enclosed please find a copy of the motion for default judgment, including the exhibits.

Please note that this is the second correspondence, with which I am sending you a copy of the motion for default judgment, with exhibits, against your corporation. The first correspondence, with which I also included a copy of the same motion, with exhibits, was sent to you on the day the motion was filed, July 6, 2019. It was sent by priority mail service of US Mail, but I did not request a return receipt. Consequently, I am sending you this correspondence, by certified mail, return receipt requested.

Please be further advised that my goal is to avoid costly litigation and to resolve this matter amicably. My ultimate goal is the defendants' compliance with the 2010 ADA Standards and accessibility for the disabled.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience to discuss settlement of this matter.

Very truly yours,

Michael Grinblat, Esq.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be advised that I filed a motion for default judgment against your corporation on July 6, 2019. On July 9, 2019, Magistrate Judge Steven M. Gold issued an order, which directs you to make submissions no later than July 26, 2019. That order also directs me to notify you of it promptly, by certified mail, return receipt requested. I sent you a copy of the motion, with all exhibits, on the same day I filed it, July 6, 2019, by priority mail, but did not request return receipt. Subsequently, on July 12, 2019, I sent you a copy of the order by certified mail, return receipt requested. Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be advised that I filed the motion for default judgment against your corporation on July 6, 2019. On January 28, 2020, Magistrate Judge Steven M. Gold issued the Report and Recommendation on that motion and directed me to serve a copy of that document on the defendant at its last known address. I am hereby complying with the Court's order. In addition, for your convenience and reference, enclosed please also find copies of the complaint, summons, affidavit of service, request for a certificate of default, motion for default judgment and Report and Recommendation, which includes both the Court's notice I received by electronic mail and the 12-page Report and Recommendation.

As I wrote to you on several occasions in the past, my ultimate goal is the defendant's compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Please contact me at your earliest convenience to discuss settlement of this matter. If the case is not going to be settled, the Court will issue an order of default judgment, which will include an injunction. This has very serious consequences.
